

Mrs. Alma Greer

Champion of Education ~ Accomplished Storyteller ~ Literacy Activist ~ World Traveler

Mrs. Alma Greer has dedicated her time, energy and expertise to the students, families, and educators of Southeastern Michigan.

Detroit Public Schools:

- Served as a classroom teacher and Area E administrator
- Retired middle school principal

Highland Park School District:

- School board member as well as president of the Board of Education
- Under her leadership the board focused on a range of community literacy activities including her beloved Real Men Read Day initiative, Real Women Read, and Read Kids Read events.
- Chaperone for Highland Park students on trips to China and Ghana.

Legacy of Literacy, Inc:

- Founder and Literacy Ambassador
- Promotes Real Men Read initiative and other reading activities at schools during National Reading Month
- Sponsors Literacy in the Park in collaboration with Highland Park Business Association, ArtOps, and UAW-Ford
- Distribute free books at schools, churches, and community organizations
- Provide scholarships to college students

Detroit Unity Temple:

- Has worked in the Bookstore
- Sponsored essay contest and spearheaded trip to Washington D.C. for students to attend the inauguration of President Barack Obama
- Chairperson of annual Kwanzaa Celebration
- Sponsor scholarships for Youth of Unity
- African American Detroit Unity 2014 Committee Member